CORE VALUES

The Palmetto State Chiropractic Association consists of a group of committed individuals who are accountable to each other and the world in their desire to serve and advance Chiropractic as a separate and distinct profession centered on the detection and correction of vertebral subluxation. As members of the PSCA, we hold in highest esteem the following core values:

Honesty and Integrity..... in every interaction with our patients, our community and those in our profession.

Commitment..... to the advancement of chiropractic, to our patients, to our fellow PSCA members, as well as to our own personal growth.

Respect..... for the fact that chiropractic is an art that can be expressed ethically and effectively through a variety of techniques, fee systems, office procedures and advertising techniques. We recognize the inherent dignity of all people and offer them our best service regardless of their race, religion or ability to pay.

Responsible..... to serve our patients by providing competent chiropractic care and to support and assist each other in the common goal of taking chiropractic to the world. We are responsible to complete accepted tasks related to our mission statement in an efficient and timely manner.

Professional Excellence..... in our striving to locate, analyze and correct vertebral subluxation and any other undertaking related to our profession. We consider continued education in the basic philosophy and skills associated with vertebral subluxation correction a lifetime pursuit and we support research in the science of chiropractic and keep an open mind to professional advancement.
